COMENTARIOS DEL VENDEDOR

This spacious Mexican Colonial villa on a gated private lane offers abundant luxury and comfort with completely new infrastructure and expertly respecting the original design. Tastefully decorated interiors are highlighted by French doors, stone pillars, and beautiful rough-cut marble floors. Fabulous formal living and dining rooms with fireplaces open onto the main terrace with pleasant sitting, dining, and lounging areas ideal for entertaining. In addition, a large attractive solar heated pool and lush tropical garden are off the main terrace. Close by are the large authentic Mexican kitchen and casual media room with a full bath. The magnificent Master Suite with two en-suite dressing rooms and baths is complemented by a handsome and cozy library, also with an en-suite bath. Four sunny guestrooms each with a bathroom, dressing area, and large closets, are in a newly remodeled wing overlooking the tennis court. Covered terraces provide outdoor sitting areas with an informal bar and spectator seats for tennis matches. A motor court includes a two-car garage and space for 6 additional cars. Completing the construction are storage rooms, four service rooms with baths, and a laundry room. Every amenity has been included in Casa Tres Loros, an exceptional villa of elegance and luxury.
